Graduate clinicians will lead program activities under the supervision of two licensed speech-language pathologists.

The camp is designed to enhance language and literacy skills through dramatization and writing experiences using modified Readers Theater and Writing Workshop programs.

Children will participate in screening sessions the first two days of camp to identify their language-literacy goals.

On the last day of camp, parents will be invited to a Readers Theater production.

Who Can Participate in the Program?

Children entering 1st or 2nd grade who have language and/or literacy delays.

Parents will need to attend three scheduled parent seminars focused on reading and writing strategies.

When is camp?

Dates: June 18-July 1, 2015

Days: Ten sessions (2 screening days)

Time: 9:00am-12:00pm

How much does the camp cost?

The camp cost is $250 and includes a screening for those children who are not currently attending the UNCG Speech and Hearing Center.

Where is the camp held?

The camp will be held at the UNCG Speech and Hearing Center. The Center is located on the corner of Spring Garden and Highland Avenue, one block from Tate Street.
