Admission

Please apply online at:
http://grs.uncg.edu/prospective/

Application Requires

- 1 official transcript from each institution attended
- GRE Scores
- 3 letters of recommendation
- A written personal statement
- May submit a 1-2 page resume.

All must be completed and turned in as one package to the Graduate School by:

February 1

The entire portfolio is reviewed GPA, GRE, personal statement, letters of recommendation and if submitted, the resume.

Speech-Language Pathology

Department Chair:
Denise Tucker, Ph.D.
Department Contact:
UNCG
Department of Communication Sciences and Disorders
300 Ferguson Building,
524 Highland Avenue
Greensboro, NC 27412
Telephone: 336-334-5184
http://csd.uncg.edu

Director of Graduate Study:
Kristine Lundgren, Sc.D.
k_lundgr@uncg.edu

Communication Sciences and Disorders
Master of Arts
The University

UNCG’s picturesque campus includes 30 academic buildings and 24 residence halls on 210 acres.

Enrollment

Approximately 17,500 on campus students (34 percent male, 66 percent female) from 48 states and more than 89 countries attend UNCG. Ethnic minority enrollment is about 33%.

Classes and faculty

Average class size is 27 students. Approximately 1,700 classes are offered each semester. Student to faculty ratio is 17:1. Ninety percent of the classes are taught by professors.

About the Program

The MA in Speech-Language Pathology is accredited by the Council of Academic Accreditation (CAA) of the American Speech-Language Hearing Association (ASHA) and provides academic and clinical instruction leading to the Certificate of Clinical Competence (CCC) awarded by ASHA and licensure in the state of North Carolina. This is a two year (5 semester) full-time program.

Success Rate

- One of the top 32 CSD programs in the US
- Praxis examination pass rate of 100%
- Graduation rate of 99%
- Employment rate 100%

Unique Features

- Close supervision and training in a variety of settings beginning the first semester
- Internationally/nationally recognized faculty
- Summer experiences
- Diverse clinic populations
- On-campus clinic
- Graduate assistantships/ tuition waivers available
- Off-site practicum in area hospitals (acute care, in-patient rehab, out-patient clinics), skilled nursing facilities, preschools, early intervention, home health, public and private schools, and private practice

The University